

Charleston County Board of Voter Registration and Elections

Withdrawal of Candidacy

Review the South Carolina State Election Commission's Policy on Candidate Withdrawals prior to completing this form.

- Statements regarding elections for countywide and less-than-countywide offices must be submitted to the appropriate county board of voter registration and elections.
- Statements regarding elections for federal, statewide and multi-county offices, including all State Senate and State House of Representatives seats, must be submitted to the State Election Commission.

Your withdrawal statement must be received by the appropriate authority by 5:00 PM on the 60th day before the election in order to remove your name from the ballot. Candidates who withdraw after the deadline will still appear on the ballot and voters will be notified at the polling location.
